Re Item III

Non-establishment of opinion with regard to novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability

1.1 Independent claim 1 is not clear and no meaningful opinion can be established with regard to the novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability of this claim (Art. 33(2) to (4) PCT).

The terms "thin", "thick", "portion" and "main portion" used in claim 1 are vague and indefinite and, as such, leaves the reader in a state of uncertainty regarding the scope of protection provided by the feature in question.

1.2 Dependent claims 2-29 are dependent on claim 1 therefore they are also not clear and no meaningful opinion can be established with regard to the novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability of this claim (Art. 33(2) to (4) PCT).

The terms "thin", "thick", "portion" and "main portion" used in claim 30 are vague and indefinite and, as such, leaves the reader in a state of uncertainty regarding the scope of protection provided by the feature in question.

2.1 Dependent claims 31-55 are dependent on claim 30 therefore they are also not clear and no meaningful opinion can be established with regard to the novelty, inventive step and industrial applicability of this claim (Art. 33(2) to (4) PCT).

3. Even if an opinion based on the claims is not possible, a consideration based on the drawings of this application can be done.
The drawings disclose a device that would appear in the light of the documents cited in the Search Report to be new and inventive.

Re Item VII
Certain defects in the international application

1. The features of the claims are not provided with reference signs placed in parentheses (Rule 6.2(b) PCT).
2. Independent claims are not in the two-part form in accordance with Rule 6.3(b) PCT, which in the present case would be appropriate, with those features known in combination from the prior art (document D1) being placed in the preamble (Rule 6.3(b)(I) PCT) and with the remaining features being included in the characterising part (Rule 6.3(b)(ii) PCT).
3. The opening part of the description should be modified to bring it into agreement with any amended independent claim (Rule 5.1(a)(ii) PCT).
